A NOTE FOR GROWN-UPS

Children begin forming beliefs about who they are very early. This book helps them build confidence on the truest foundation there is: God created them in His image, loves them, and made them on purpose (Genesis 1:27).

The book follows the seasons of the year, from winter to fall. Each page has a Bible truth in big letters for your child to color, a Bible verse to read together, a picture of kids at school, at home, at the park and out in the neighborhood, and a few lines for notes.

Ideas for using it:

- Color one page a week and read its verse out loud together each day.
- Ask: “When could you remember this truth this week?” Write the answer on the note lines.
- Let younger children dictate their thoughts while you write them down.
- Use crayons or colored pencils. With markers, slip a sheet of paper behind the page.
